PROJECTS

Blood Donation Registration Form(Mini Project)
I have made a project on registration form by using HTML, CSS and PhpMyadmin. This project was for learning purpose. So in this project, there is a form in one of the subpage that submits our information directly to phpmyAdmin database and other webpages in this website have information and data about blood donors. .

My portfolio website (ongoing Mini Project)
In my portfolio website, I have created a webpage by using concept of HTML, CSS and Bootstrapping . My website is fully responsive in laptops, mobiles and tabs . This mini project consists of my portfolio and resume details . This is a formal dynamic website about my skills and details
